

Kent Nelson Tigges, MS, OTR, FAOTA, FHIH, was Professor emeritus of Occupational Therapy at the University at Buffalo, State University of New York, and involved in private practice in home health care, including hospice care.

William Matthew Marcil, MS, OTR, is a consulting occupational therapist in private practice in Virginia Beach, Virginia. He has extensive experience in acute care, long-term care, rehabilitation and hospice care programs. He currently specializes in home health care in Tidewater, Virginia.