

Kent Nelson Tigges, MS, OTR, FAOTA, FHIH, was Professor emeritus of Occupational Therapy at the University at Buffalo, State University of New York, and involved in private practice in home health care, including hospice care.