

Introductory Concepts in Neurodevelopmental Treatment

About the Presenter

Linda A. Kliebhan, P.T. is an NDT coordinator Instructor in pediatrics. She teaches both the 8-week pediatric course and advanced courses. Ms. Kliebhan is consultant to the Medical College of Wisconsin, Department of Orthopaedics. She lectures throughout the United States and abroad. She is internationally recognized for her expertise in the treatment of children with neuromotor disorders and is currently in private practice.

Topic Index

Part 1

Introductory Concepts

Part 2

Introductory Concepts cont.

Evaluation and Treatment Planning: Use of ICF Model with NDT

Part 3

Typical Development

Part 4

Atypical Development

Part 5

Atypical Development cont.

Treatment Application